

The principles you have practiced in these fourteen days are very easy to sustain long-term. Prayer, fasting, and personal devotion are all quite simple to incorporate into your everyday life. Over these last fourteen days, you've created space for God to fill. The best way to continue in these same practices is to keep that space open indefinitely. Don't allow it to close up! Protect that time and space with God and make it your priority each day.

Just like reading your Bible, praying, and attending church, fasting is also a lifestyle. We encourage you to establish a frequency and consistency of fasting in your life. Remember, this is not a legalistic thing. This is an "I get to experience God" thing. It is like going into heaven for a tune up, so we can keep our passion for God and enjoyment of Him at a high level. We encourage you to do the same. Figure out what works for you, commit to it, and make it a part of your life.

If you have a personal story you'd like to share, we'd love to hear from you and celebrate what God has done in your life through Encounter. Visit us online at everyday-church.net.

Don't ever settle for anything less than a life full of passion and spiritual zeal for God. Keep the fire for God burning in your heart and do whatever it takes to feed your spiritual hunger for God.

14 Days of Prayer & Fasting

(January 26 – February 8)

//encounter

Dear Friends,

We are excited that you are making it a priority to seek God corporately over the next 14 days in a time of prayer, fasting & devotion. Our corporate focus during this time is to seek God that we may Encounter Him daily as a church and individually throughout 2014.

The early church encountered God in a way that "day by day" people were being saved (Acts 2:47). In order for us to live out our mission which is to lead people to experience their potential in Jesus Christ everyday, we have to encounter God daily! He promises that if we go closer to Him, He will get close to us (James 4:4). God is very real, very personal, and as we encounter Him we get to know Him and His ways!

One way that we can encounter God more intimately is through prayer & fasting. Fasting is refraining from food for a spiritual purpose. It is a principle that God intended for every follower of His to enjoy. It's not a punishment; it's a privilege! By making fasting a way of life, you can get closer to God and grow in your spiritual walk like never before. Fasting is one of the most powerful weapons God has given us for our daily lives. Through fasting, you can experience a release from the bondage of sin ... restoration in your relationships ... financial blessings ... spiritual renewal ... supernatural healing and so much more!

Corporately fasting in January is much the same precept as praying in the morning to establish the will of God for the entire day. I believe if we seek God and give Him our best at the first of the year, He will bless our ENTIRE year! "But seek first His Kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well" (Matthew 6:33 NIV). This is why we have set aside January 26 – February 8 as a time for corporate prayer & fasting!

Thank you for taking the next step in your spiritual walk through the life-changing principle of fasting. Take time to seek the Lord in prayer and let your decisions about your fast come from Him. Ask the Lord to show you areas to target during your time of fasting and prayer. Start with a clear goal and make a commitment to stick to your fast. Be ready to grow in your walk like never before as you seek the Lord through prayer and fasting. Remember, "He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him!" (Hebrews 11:6)

Seeking Him together,
Pastor Mike Drenzo

//prayer

As you prepare for the next fourteen days, it can be tempting to start thinking of a laundry list of prayers you'd love to see answered. But we really want to encourage you to keep this simple. Think about the top two or three things most pressing on your heart and zone in on those with God. Write these down in the space provided below, and be open to hearing what God wants to show you in those areas. The breakthroughs, miracles, and answers to your prayers will be byproducts of drawing closer to Jesus.

When praying, make your primary goal to know Jesus more and experience Him. Pray prayers of total surrender, and aim to glorify God with your life. Focus first on what's right about Him, such as His goodness and His greatness, and see everything else through that filter.

And most simply, make time to pray daily. Don't overcomplicate this! Just talk to God. Have that place and time where you spend with Him every day. If you don't plan to pray, you won't. If you find it a challenge to disconnect from the busyness of your day, engaging in worship music is a great way to prepare your heart for prayer.

During this fast, I am praying and believing God for:

The type of fast that I will be doing:

The days that I will be fasting will be from:

_____ to _____

I will ask _____ to join me on this fast.

FAST Important Note: Fasting requires reasonable precautions. If you have any health concerns, please consult your physician prior to beginning your fast, especially if you are taking any medication, have a chronic condition, or are pregnant or nursing a baby.

//prepare

As you prepare to fast, it is important to choose a fasting plan that works for you. While this section provides some general information about different types of fasts, as well as some suggestions on how to create your own fasting plan, it is important to mention that there is nothing more inherently spiritual about one type of fast as opposed to another. These are simply guidelines and suggestions on different things you can do.

Do not let what you eat or do not eat become the focus of your fast. Keep the main thing the main thing, which is drawing closer to God. Remember, this is a time to disconnect enough from your regular patterns and habits in order to connect more closely to God. Here are a few tips to keep in mind before getting started:

1. Start Where You Are

We are all at different places in our walk with God. Likewise our jobs, daily schedules, and health conditions are all different and place various levels of demands on our energy. So most importantly, whether you've fasted before or this is your first time, start where you are. Your personal fast should present a level of challenge to it, but it's very important to know your own body, know your options and, most importantly, seek God in prayer and follow what the Holy Spirit leads you to do.

Remember, the goal of fasting is not just to do without food. The goal is to draw nearer to God.

2. Find Your Fast Zone

When most people start fasting, there is typically some level of discomfort. However, it is possible to get used to the fasting routine pretty quickly. Quite simply, you must learn to fast in a way that works for you.

Pray by talking to God about what you just read. Take time to listen as well.

While any true fast does involve abstinence from food or at least certain types of food, typically, different fasting combinations work better for different people. The goal to having a successful fast is all about finding what we like to call your Fast Zone, and that is different for everybody and can change depending on the season you are in.

The best way to describe your Fast Zone is that it's the place where you feel light and spiritually in tune. Your mind is easily focused on God and spiritual things. You have an increased spiritual energy—you can feel the fast working. Just like runners know what their target heart rate is to see the benefits of their physical training, the Fast Zone is similar in a spiritual sense.

Finding your Fast Zone helps you choose both the type and length of fast. Let's say you choose to go on a Daniel fast (only fruits and vegetables). Should you eat beans? If you can eat beans and stay in your Fast Zone, go ahead. But for some people eating beans takes them out of the zone. Should you eat peanut butter? Probably not. Peanut butter is more of an indulgence, and not many people can stay in a Fast Zone while enjoying indulgences.

Should you completely cut out caffeine? It depends. The great thing is, when you fast, your body automatically craves less caffeine. If you can stay in your Fast Zone with a little caffeine, great. If you are going on a longer fast and want to cut it out of your diet completely, that's great too. But ease yourself off and make it your goal to be completely caffeine free about two-thirds of the way into your fast.

If you drink coffee regularly, one of the worst mistakes you can make is to fast for one to three days and cut caffeine out abruptly and completely. Please don't do that or you will spend this time grumpy and in withdrawal instead of enjoying God's presence.

Mixing things up a bit during a fourteen-day fast is what typically works best for people. For example, do a fruits and vegetables fast for a week. Then do all liquids for a while. Maybe even mix in a few days of only water if you think you are ready for that. Then go back to the fruits and vegetables for a few days.

“There isn’t one approach that works the same for everyone. Follow the Holy Spirit, mix it up, find what works for you, and stay in your Fast Zone!”

Some people can’t stay in a Fast Zone eating any type of solid food, so they prefer all liquids. With today’s protein drinks and juicing machines, it is so easy to get a healthy dose of all your nutritional needs even while taking in only liquids. Certain people can’t do anything other than drink only water. If they eat a salad or drink a glass of juice, they get out of their zone. Or if they allow themselves to eat cantaloupe, they will end up eating twenty cantaloupes a day!

3. Choose Your Type of Fast

While preparing for your fast, it is important to choose ahead of time what type of fast, or what combination, you will pursue. Not only will this help with making the necessary preparations to implement your plan, but as you commit to a specific fast ahead of time and know how you’re going to do it, you will position yourself to finish strong.

On the following pages we’ve listed some options and variations of fasts you can choose from. As you read over the information, please consider how it may or may not apply to your personal circumstances and convictions.

You may choose to fast all fourteen days. Or you may choose to fast several days out of the fourteen days, such as three or four days a week throughout the fourteen day period. Or you may choose to do three to seven consecutive days at the end. This is your personal decision and should be prayerfully considered as it applies to your circumstances.

Scripture: Read Matthew 4.

Observe: Specifically in Matthew 4:1-11 what stands out to you from these verses? What do you think God is saying to you about them? The verse(s) I will focus on throughout today is _____.

Application: What is an action step you can take from the reading?

Pray by talking to God about what you just read. As God prepared Jesus for ministry through fasting, ask God to prepare you for 2014 for all that you are going to face. Take time to listen as well.

//day2

Scripture: Read Matthew 6:1-18

Observe: Specifically in Matthew 6:6-8 what stands out to you from these verses. What do you think God is saying to you about them? The verse(s) I will focus on throughout today is _____.

Application: What is an action step you can take from these verses.

Pray by talking to God about what you just read. Take time to listen as well.

//day3

Scripture: Read Matthew 6:19-34

Observe: Specifically in Matthew 6:25-33 what stands out to you from these verses. What do you think God is saying to you about them? The verse(s) I will focus on throughout today is _____.

Application: What is an action step you can take from these verses.

Pray by talking to God about what you just read. Lay before God everything that my try to take first place from him today and thru this year. Take time to listen as well.

3. Read Expectantly You are about to partake of the bread of life, so foster an attitude of expectancy. Believe that God is going to speak to you through His Word. With meditation on the ideas and thoughts recorded in your journal, be prepared to do something with what He shows you. A great, simple way to journal your time with God is to use the SOAP method.

4. SOAP Method

Scripture Observation Application Prayer

The SOAP method is used like this:

~S for Scripture. Read prayerfully. Take notice of which scripture(s) catches your attention and mark it in your Bible. When you're done, reread the verse(s) you marked and look for one that particularly speaks to you. Write it in your journal.

~O for Observation. Focusing on that scripture tune in and listen to what God is saying to you through His Word. What is it about this scripture that specifically stands out? What does God want to reveal to you or teach you? Ask the Holy Spirit to be your guide and show you what God is saying.

~A for Application. Think of how the verse(s) applies to your life right now. Perhaps it is instruction, encouragement, revelation of a new promise, or correction for a particular area of your life. Use your journal to write how this scripture applies to you today.

~P for Prayer. Wrap up your SOAP time in prayer. Talk to God about what you've just read. This can be as simple as thanking Him for revealing a truth from the scripture, or it may be asking Him for greater insight or wisdom as to how it applies to your life. Remember, prayer is all about relationship. It's a two-way conversation, so be sure to listen to what God has to say.

//fasting types

Specific Food/ Activity Fast or Daniel Fast In this type of fast you omit a specific item(s) from your meal plans. For example, you may choose to eliminate all red meat, processed or fast food, or sweets. Most people can incorporate this type of fast relatively easily. It can also prove to be a great solution for people with specific dietary needs or medical conditions that may cause certain limitations.

In the book of Daniel we find two different times where the prophet Daniel fasted. Daniel 1 states that he only ate vegetables and water, and in Daniel 10, while the passage does not give a specific list of foods that Daniel ate, it does state that he ate no rich(or choice) foods, as well as no meat or wine. So based on these two verses, we can see that either of these, or combinations of the two, constitute a Daniel fast.

Again, it is important to mention that there is nothing inherently spiritual about one type of fast as opposed to another. The foundation of the Daniel fast is fruits and vegetables. Some starchy vegetables and dairy could be included, but that depends on the individual. Your goal should be to seek God in prayer about this and follow what the Holy Spirit leads you to do. Just remember: find your personal Fast Zone.

Juice Fast A juice fast is simply consuming vegetable and fruit juices and water instead of solid food. Many people include whey protein in their liquid plan as well. This is one of the most popular and effective fasts. Even if you choose not to make your entire fast liquids-only, substituting one or two meals for liquids is a great alternative.

Water Fast A water-only fast is the normal fast referred to in the Bible. This is how Jesus and the New Testament church fasted. A water fast is just that—no eating of any food or drinking of any liquids except water.

Periodic water fasts can be very beneficial, but extreme precautions should be taken. For some people it is hard to perform effectively at their jobs and have energy for their families while drinking only water.

We recommend consulting your physician first, and water fasting is only for a day or two unless you can get away or your job allows you to really disconnect so you can give your best energy to the fast. Remember, when Jesus went on His forty-day fast, He went by Himself out into the wilderness.

Having said all that, there are some people who can water fast and work, and they function fine without much fatigue and still able to work well. You are blessed if you are one of these people.

Total Fast A total fast is where nothing—neither liquid, solid food, nor even water—is consumed for a very short period of time. There are examples of this type of fast in the Bible. It was an Old Covenant type of fast associated with mourning, or deep grief, such as when David engaged in a total fast for a week, hoping that God would spare the child he had with Bathsheba (2 Samuel 12).

Under the New Covenant, we do not fast to mourn or to seek forgiveness. God has already forgiven us, and we are commanded to celebrate Jesus because He is alive. Plus, complete abstinence of food and water can be very dangerous to our health. Attempting to go without water for any period of time can be extremely harmful to the body.

We strongly discourage the total fast.

//connecting

Just like prayer and fasting, reading the Bible is about connecting to God in a more powerful way. It is not about duty but about relationship. When we engage God through reading His Word, we engage His very presence. His Word is living and active! As we read our Bible, we are drawing closer to God and positioning ourselves to hear from Him in particular ways.

Once again, as with prayer, choose the time and place where you are going to read your Bible every single day, and come prepared to hear what He wants to tell you.

Here are three quick things we'd like to share with you about how to get the most out of your time with God.

1. Read Consistently It is better to read a little everyday than to try to knock out two hours of Bible reading or devotions in one sitting. It is so important to digest the Word in absorbable chunks. In the //14day devotional at the end of this packet) we have included a Bible Reading plan that helps with that, as it leads you through Bible passages. Don't bite off more than you can chew, and certainly don't compare your "performance" with that of others. If you miss a few days, pick up at the next reading, but stay with it and don't give up.

The key is to keep this simple and make it sustainable.

2. Read Prayerfully Talk to God as you're reading. Don't rush through. If you come across something you don't understand, pause for a moment and ask God about it. Reading prayerfully is making space and time to talk to God and giving Him time and space to talk to you. Taking time to meditate on God's Word is just as important as reading it.

As you select your type of fast, make a fasting calendar that fits your plan. Determine what each day and week will look like.

Keep your fridge and pantry stocked with the items you need. Being unprepared to fast sets you up to give in to temptation. Choose well when selecting products, stick to raw food as much as you can, and limit artificial ingredients.

Make it a priority to attend church and life group during your fourteen day fast. Being around other believers will encourage you to keep going when fasting gets difficult.

If you mess up, don't get discouraged. Just get right back on track and keep going. God's mercies "are new every morning" (Lamentations 2:22-23). He wants you to finish, and He will give you the grace and strength to do it.

Sample Menu 1: Fruits, Vegetables, Juices and Water

Breakfast : Fruit smoothie with whey protein

Mid-morning snack: Fresh fruit or fresh vegetables

Lunch: Raw vegetable salad with light, organic dressing and vegetable broth soup

Mid-afternoon snack: Fresh fruit or fresh vegetables

Dinner: Fresh salad with light, organic dressing and steamed or grilled vegetables

Breakfast: Fruit smoothie with whey protein

Mid-morning snack: Herbal tea or vegetable broth soup

Lunch: Raw, juiced vegetables

Mid-afternoon snack: Fresh fruit juice or fruit smoothie with whey protein

Dinner: Vegetable juice or vegetable broth soup

Sample Menu 3: Modified Daniel Fast

Breakfast: 1-2 servings whole grain with fresh fruit juice

Mid-morning snack: Fresh fruit or fresh chopped vegetables

Lunch: 1-2 servings whole grains; fresh salad with legumes and light, organic dressing

Mid-afternoon snack: Fresh fruit juice or fruit smoothie with whey protein

Dinner: 1-2 servings whole grains; fresh salad with legumes and light, organic dressing

//alternatives

Fasting While Nursing or Pregnant Strict fasting while pregnant or nursing also is not recommended. If you are in this incredible season of life but would like to participate in the fourteen-day plan, here are some great options for you to consider – with the approval of your physicians:

A modified Daniel fast including whole grains, legumes, whey protein, calcium, and iron supplements

Fasting sweets and desserts

Fasting red meat

Fasting diversions (tv shows, movies, social media, video games)

If you are a pregnant or nursing mother, your priority is the health and the development of the baby God has entrusted you with. Make that your guideline and go from there. And please consult your doctor.

Fasting and Eating Disorders If you have struggled with an eating disorder, this situation is a battle of the mind and you can win through Christ (Philippians 4:13). Remember, fasting is a tool used to get closer to God, and it actually should keep us from being preoccupied with food. If your method of fasting is going to cause you to obsess about what you eat in any way, you will need to change either your approach or your mindset.

If giving up food is a stumbling block to you, then consider fasting of television, reading (other than the Bible, of course), social media, or shopping. There are many distractions and ways that we use to stay in control that we could eliminate from our daily routine. We do these things to distract ourselves from the real issues hurting us. If you can identify such other things, maybe you can give those up instead of food. Remember that you are covered by God's grace. God will show you what to do. His "yoke is easy" and His "burden is light" (Matthew 11:30). His way will bring rest to your soul.

//starting & ending

Begin and Break the Fast Well Depending on the type of fast you choose, it is very important to prepare your body ahead of time before beginning the fast. Take a week or so to transition into your fast; otherwise, you could get sick. For example, if you would like to go on a fruits and vegetables or juice fast, start eliminating meat, white grains, and refined sugars from your diet the week before. Also start to cut back quite a bit on dairy products and some of your caffeine intake.

The same principle applies to breaking your fast. When your fast is over, add foods back in very gradually. Please don't break your fast with a greasy cheeseburger! Because your body is so cleansed and detoxified, you will most likely get sick if you do that.

There are also several supplements you can take that will help support the detox process during your fast. Your health-food store can give you recommendations.

Only by prayer and fasting Mark 9:29

When you fast..... Matthew 6:16

//menu & body

Creating Your Personal Fasting Menu On the following pages, we will share a few simple menu options for your use. Your plan could include one of these menu ideas or even a variation of all of them. You could even mix it up, doing something different food-wise on the weekends or on certain days of the week. Again, pray about this and find what works for you.

To keep your energy up throughout the day, it's important to eat or drink every two and a half to three hours. If you go longer than that, you can experience an energy lull and be tempted to overstuff yourself at your next meal. Even if you're fasting on fruits and vegetables, overstuffing is never a smart thing to do.

It is very important to drink lots of water while fasting. Drinking about one hundred ounces of water per day will help to support your critical liver function.

The liver is a filter for the body, so when you don't drink enough water, the liver doesn't function at its highest capacity. Select your food items wisely. We will not be listing specific ingredients you "should" or "should not" include in your plan. The key is to prepare a plan ahead of the fast, to not get legalistic about it, and to choose menu items well. For example, if you prefer dressing on your salads, choose a healthy, organic option with natural ingredients – and don't pour a gallon of it on your plate. If you're drinking fruit juices, try to go as natural as possible, and don't drink juices heavily processed and laden with sugar. Remember to not let food become the focus of your fast, but make wise eating choices.
